Lawn Party To-night.

A very enjoyable evening is prom-jacd those who attend the al fresco sparty to be given this evening on the beautiful grounds surrounding the Church of the Holy Comforter. Deli-clous refreshments will be served, and n number of attractive young girls will be in charge of this feature. Song by Virginian.

Another attractive song, inspired by the historical celebrations of the year, is entitled "Virginia: A Melody," by Charles Wesley Keyes, of Luray, Va. Even the title page of the music is distinctively Virginian, bearing as it vices a spray of Virginia creeper in black and white.

The words of the song breathe of dove for the State, for her sunny skies.

The words of the song breathe of love for the State, for her sunny skies and "murmuring streams." The music, though simple, is melodious, and the efrain is bounting in its appeal. Celebrated Anniversory.

The Grasshopper and Cricket

Other selections from this author, his portrait, autograph and biographical sketch, have already been printed in this series.

Green little vaulter in the sunny grass,
Catching your heart up at the feel of June,—
Sole voice that's heard amid the lazy noon,
When even the bees leg at the summoning brass;
And you, warm little housekeeper, who class
With those who think the candles come ton seon,
Loving the fire, and with your tricksome tune
Nick the glad silent moments as they pass!
O sweet and tiny cousins that belong,
One to the fields, the other to the hearth,
Both have your sunshine; both, though small, are strong
At your clear hearts; and both seem given to earth
To sing in thoughful ears this natural song,—
Indoors and out, summer and winter, mirth!

ATHLETICS WIN BY DOUBLE SCORE

Defeated Church Hill Invincibles After Spirited Contest.

The Church Hill Invincibles met thely second defeat of the season yesterday morning, when they went down before the Fuiton Athletics on the latter's grounds. With the exception of the first inning the game was an interesting one. Several rank errors on the part of the Invincibles in this inning were responsible for the majority of the Athletics' runs. With two out, Coleman in centre garden muffed an easy fly, four runs being scored after his miscue. Lucas for the invincibles pitched an idea, steady game, and had he been given proper support would have won his game. The feature of the game was a sensational running catch by Crawford for the Invincibles, robbing the Athletics of a three-bagger. The two teams the advantage.

WOES OF THE ROAD.

Commercial Travelers Have Troubles of Their Own.

KANSAS CITY, MO., July 4.—The American Federation of Travelers met here to-day in first annual convention. The delivery of the address of President D. W. Richmond occupied to-day's sossion. The federation is designed to protect travelers from extortions and exactions of all kinds. "We are not asking any reduction in the ordinary charges," said President Richmond to-day, "but we do protest against the increased charges, and especially the tips we are compelled to pay which "the house' does not allow. There are also many practices on the part of the railroads which we are resisting, Many conductors treat us shabbily because we do not pay cash fares. Bus drivers collect return fares and forget to take us back to the station. Everybody seems to think that the house pays for everything and that we should divide up with them what they call our 'padded expense accounts."
